Christina,

I want to introduce Sean to the Chamber by June probably. The Bookstore (hopefully opening June of 2017) will become a Chamber member. Sean's idea (and a good one) is to operate a popup bookstore at the farmer's market for the next year in expectation of the opening. I would like everyone at the Chamber to know Sean by next year. This being Westchester's 75th Anniversary also makes this perfect timing for Karen's concept and gift to Westchester, as well as moving forward to enhance our downtown business and residential community.

I will also be dedicating more time this year to Chamber events and getting to know all your wonderful members.

Miki
